Kaydon Corp. President James O'Leary Visits
Purafil's Doraville Headquarters

Kaydon Senior Management Team to Discuss Growth Initiatives

DORAVILLE, GA – On Tuesday, May 17, members of Kaydon Corporation's (KDN) Senior Management team will visit Purafil Inc, which is one of its subsidiaries. James O'Leary, Kaydon Chairman, President and CEO; Gary Brewer, Kaydon Group Operations President; and Debra Crane, Kaydon Vice President, General Council and Secretary, will attend Purafil's Managers' Meeting on Tuesday.

The senior members from Kaydon's corporate offices will play an integral role in the meeting as they discuss endeavors to double Purafil's volume, developments in technology and how pertinent acquisitions will impact Purafil's products and services. Other meeting attendees include Purafil regional sales managers from the Americas, Europa and Purafil Asia offices.

James Mash, Purafil President/CEO, explains, "We are anticipating incredible growth for Purafil over the next five years. The alliance between Purafil and our corporate owner, Kaydon Corporation, has progressed steadily since 2005. With their detailed attention to collaboration and future acquisitions, we expect to double our revenues by 2015."

Kaydon President/CEO James O'Leary adds, "I have high expectations that Purafil will be a key driver of Kaydon's future success. We are fully committed to support Jim Mash and the Purafil team worldwide in aggressively expanding this world class business."

Purafil will also host its annual Representative Training on Thursday, May 19 through Friday, May 20. Thirty of Purafil's global representatives will be on hand to attend the two-day comprehensive training. In fact, novice and advanced representatives from Chile, Canada, Russia, Mexico, Germany, Finland, China, South Africa, Portugal, Spain, Norway and Turkey will be in attendance. Their firms' growth and success is directly related to Purafil's strategic plan. Through continuous education and communication, Purafil strives to nurture its relationships with its expansive global network in order to continue to lead the gas-phase air filtration industry.
