
LEARN MORE ABOUT THE 2021 SECTION 179 TAX DEDUCTION

Improve your operating efficiency, cash flow, and the level of care you provide to your patients now and take advantage of a possible tax deduction at the end of the year. With Section 179*, you can reduce your 2021 taxable income by up to $1,050,000, and receive 100% First-Year Bonus Depreciation.

Medical practices are continuing to adapt to the current environment and implementing new standards of care by investing in the equipment and technology they need to operate safely for doctors, patients, and staff. If your practice has used CARES Act, PPP, or other similar funding for these investments, you may have other tax implications and could benefit from a Section 179* tax deduction.

There are more items now deductible under Section 179*, including; roofs, heating, air conditioning, and ventilation systems; fire protection, alarms, and security systems; as well as office furniture, equipment, and off-the-shelf software.

Now may be the best time to invest in your practice and benefit from these upgrades and get a possible tax deduction and savings come tax time.
